โลกคือสภาพที่สะท้อน ออกจากตัวคุณ...

The world is the projection of yourself...

โลกคือคุณ ตัวคุณคือปัญหา ปัญหาไม่ได้แยกแตกต่างไปจากคุณ
โลกคือสภาพที่สะท้อนออกจากตัวคุณ
โลกไม่สามารถเปลี่ยนแปลงได้ จนกว่าคุณจะเปลี่ยน

The world is you; you are the problem;
the problem is not separate from you; the world is the projection of yourself.
The world cannot be transformed till you are.

Previously these newsletters have published the content of two public exhibitions focused on the teachings of J. Krishnamurti. "To The Young" and "World In Crisis".

These two exhibitions were developed by Vikram Parchure a designer exploring design as an instrument of social change and value education. He had his formal training at the National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad, and has explored design in the context of diverse fields. He has been involved with curriculum design in mainstream and progressive education, the design of learners' aids in adult literacy and non-formal education programmes, the design of conscience raising programmes for the socially oppressed, and the teaching of value education through theatre. He innovated a pilot heritage education programme near Chennai to address issues of cultural alienation in contemporary society.

Vikram has developed a third exhibition entitled "The Only Revolution". It has been unable to be exhibited publicly due to restrictions caused by the pandemic. However, a panel from the exhibition will be published in this newsletter over the coming months.

Our thanks to Vikram Parchure and The Anveekshana Foundation, Thailand for permission to show these panels.

The Core of the Teachings

""For the youth, the only thing that's really needed is to be inquiring and to investigate." – Darrel M.

Over the next issues of this newsletter five interviews from friends of the Krishnamurti Foundation of America are presented with them talking about the impact Krishnamurti's teachings have had in their lives and how the teachings are relevant to young people and society today.

Second conversation with Pupul Jayakar

Pupul Jayakar was a trustee of Krishnamurti Foundation India, and for decades was a friend of Krishnamurti's. She helped publish many of his books in India, along with writing a biography which was published soon after his death. Her other books include The Earth Mother, The Buddha and God is Not a Full-Stop.

This second conversation was recorded in the summer of 1978, at Brockwood. Krishnamurti asks: What does the word 'conscious' mean to you?, saying that thought can never be aware of the total content of consciousness. Can the mind perceive the totality? Is there a love or a quality which is not part of consciousness? Is it possible to observe with all one's senses? Is there a totally different dimension to consciousness, not invented by thought? Can this be discovered? What quality is necessary to move out of the circle of consciousness? How can we know order when we live in total disorder? When thought is completely, absolutely still, there is an action.

Book Review: What Are You Looking For?

WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?

'One of the five saints
of the 20th century'
TIME

J. KRISHNAMURTI

4 million copy bestselling author

– A follow-up to the book: What Are You Doing with Your Life?

"We all live in relationship. We live in relationship to one another, to our families, to the world, to the Earth, to the Universe"

"What are you looking for" is a book about relationship. According to Krishnamurti, "Life is relationship. One cannot exist without relationship".

However, relationship can be a tortuous thing, full of conflict.

Throughout his life K talked of the importance of relationship, and this book brings out its many facets.

It is conveniently divided into three sections,

- People: person to person
- Society and you relationships
- What is the purpose of life?

"All life is a movement in relationship. There is no living thing on earth which is not related to something or other. Even the hermit, a man who goes off to a lonely spot, is related to the past, is related to those who are around him. There is no escape from relationship. In that relationship which is the mirror in which we can see ourselves, we can discover what we are, our reactions, our prejudices, our fears, depression, anxieties, loneliness, sorrow, pain, grief. We can also discover whether we love, or if there is no such thing as love. So, we will examine this question of relationship because that is the basis of love. That is the only thing we have now with each other. If you cannot find the right relationship, if you live your own particular narrow life apart from wife, husband, and so on, that isolated existence brings about its own destruction. "
